

Please, send the notification via email to address registry@fimea.fi

1. Date of the notification
2. First notification
3. Updated notification
The first notification was given, date
4. Unavailable from, date
5. Estimated ending date of the shortage
6. Nordic Article Number
7. Name of the medicinal product
8. Strength
9. Pharmaceutical form
10. Active ingredient(s)
11. Package size
12. Medicinal product for human use
13. Veterinary medicinal product
14. Mandatory stored medicinal product Yes No
15. ATC-code
16. Marketing authorisation holder
17. Contact details of the marketing authorisation holder or of a representative Company Contact Person Telephone Email

Sections 1-17 will be published on Fimea's website and all of these details have to be filled in when notifying Fimea for the first time. Information in the appendix of the form have to be sent to Fimea by using secure mail as soon as possible before estimated ending date of the shortage.

Fimea will remove this notification from its website after estimated ending date of the shortage. Any updating of the information in the notification form or its appendix has to be done before estimated ending date.